IN MAYOR'S COURT.

Tom Wilson Was Charged With Disorderly Conduct, but Discharged.

Tom Williams, a colored man, was arraigned before Mayor Thomas Wednesday morning upon a charge of disorderly conduct. The charge was preferred by another negro, Allaby Tillman, who claimed that Wilson was guilty of an assault upon his boy.

After hearing the evidence in the case Mayor Thomas released the defendant.

Williams bears a very good name among those who know him, all stating that he is a peaceable, hard-working man and law-abiding citizen.

THE COTTON CROP.

Rust Has Set In, But is Not Serious, and a Fair Yield Expected.

Some farmers from the northern and northwestern sections of the county state that rust is prevalent in those sections, but that it is not severe, and very little loss to the crop will result. The plant is opening rapidly, and many growers will begin picking in a few days.

Indications are that the yield will be about the same as last year, with a slight increase in acreage. The continued drought during the early summer had a tendency to set the crop back to some extent.

Had a Big Time.

Mount Vernon Lodge No. 20, Knights of Pythias, had a big time at its regular weekly meeting Tuesday evening, the occasion being refreshments and a smoker, after the regular session of the lodge, at which the Rank of Esquire was conferred upon one candidate.

There were a number of visitors at this meeting, to say nothing of the members of the lodge, with the result that it was one of the largest gatherings of the order since the last district meeting here.

At the close of the lodge refreshments of ice cream and cake was served, followed by fine cigars. During this part of the program many addresses were made "on the good of the order," and among the visitors speaking were W. E. Dow of High Springs Lodge, District Deputy Grand Chancellor, Prof. Arthur Williams of Tallahassee, and J. H. Coffee of Waldo.

The committee of arrangements, and to whom the Knights are indebted, were L. C. Lynch, M. B. Saunders and J. A. Phifer.

Attention, Voters.

We wish to inform the patrons of The Sun that no votes are allowed in the Library contest on money paid for advertising in The Sun. Only those who pay the sum of $1.25 or over on subscriptions to The Daily Sun or those who pay cash for job printing will be allowed to vote.
